No. 1727.

A MANIFESTO publiſh'd by his Pruſſian Majeſty, on the Entrance of his Forces into Sileſia.

E FREDERIC, by the Grace of God, &c. do aſſure all the Inhabitants of the Duchy of Sileſia, and of the Principalities and Countries therein incorporated, of whatſoever Rank or Condition they be, of our Favour and Good-Will.'

'It having pleaſed the Almighty to call his late Imperial Majeſty out of this Temporal State to himſelf, whereby not only to deprive the Empire of its Head, but alſo the Illuſtrious Archiducal Houſe of Auſtria, which, by the Pretenſions form'd to the Succeſſion of the ſaid Imperial Majeſty, by reaſon of the entire Extinction of the Male Branch, is expoſed to many ſad Events, ſome of which have already manifeſted themſelves, and others are on the point of burſting out, like a general Conflagration, wherein the Duchy of Sileſia might happen to be involv'd; the Preſervation and Proſperity of which we always had the more at Heart, becauſe it ſerves as a Bulwark for our Security, and that of our Dominions in the Empire. And foraſmuch as ſuch as think they have a Rightful Claim to the hereditary Dominions of the Houſe of Auſtria, might perhaps invade and ſeize this Duchy by open Force, to the great Prejudice and Damage of our Dominions, and thoſe that border thereon; which might be enough to ſpread the Blaze of War to our Frontiers, and expoſe ourſelves to evident Danger.'

'For this Reaſon, in order to prevent Conſequences ſo fatal, and to provide for the Defence of the Dominions and Subjects which God has committed to our Care, eſpecially at a Time when a General War ſeems impending, We have thought that in conformity to the Principles of that neceſſary Defence authoriſ'd by the Law of Nature, and thoſe of all Nations (which allow every one to take care of themſelves) it was our Duty to hinder the Execution of ſeveral Projects infinitely prejudicial to us, ſome of which lie ſtill concealed, but others are made manifeſt enough; and being determin'd by other cogent and important Reaſons, which we ſhall not fail to make publick in due time, we have been oblig'd to march our Forces into the Duchy of Sileſia, in order to cover it againſt any Invaſion and Attack.'

'And as by ſo doing we have no manner of Intention to prejudice or diſoblige her Royal Majeſty the Queen of Hungary, with whom we have reſolv'd and ſincerely wiſh to maintain a ſtrict Friendſhip, as well as with all the Auſtrian Family, and after the Example of our glorious Predeceſſors to the Crown and the Electorate, to contribute to their true Intereſt and Preſervation: And as it will appear plain enough in due time that this has been our only View, becauſe we are now likewiſe explaining our Intentions upon this Head to her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary; Therefore all and every the Inhabitants of the Duchy of Sileſia, and the Principalities and Countries therein incorporated, of what Rank or Condition ſoever they be, may be aſſur'd that they have no Hoſtility to fear either from us or our Troops, but that, on the contrary, they ſhall find the Effects of our Royal Protection, and powerful Support, by being maintain'd in the Enjoyment of their Lawful Rights and Prerogatives, Liberties and Privileges, Publick and Private, Eccleſiaſtick or Civil, of whatſoever Religion, Rank, or Dignity they are, and in all Occaſions that ſuch Protection ſhall be neceſſary. And we ſhall take care that our Troops obſerve the beſt and ſtricteſt Diſcipline, to the end that no Man be moleſted or diſturb'd by them in the Poſſeſſion of his Property.'

'On the other hand, as we are come into Sileſia without any View of committing the leaſt Hoſtility there, but purely for the Good of the Inhabitants, for the Preſervation of their Eſtates and of the Peace of the Country, which is as neceſſary for them as for us, we perſuade ourſelves and firmly truſt, that theſe gracious and friendly Offers and Declarations will make them cautious of doing or attempting any thing in any manner whatſoever againſt us and ours, and of undertaking any thing that may oblige us hereafter, againſt our Wills, to have Recourſe to other Meaſures, which might be attended with ſuch fatal Conſequences as they could thank none but themſelves for.'

'In witneſs whereof we have ſign'd the preſent Manifeſto, and thereto ſet our Royal Seal.'

Given at our Reſidence at Berlin, Dec. 11. 1740. Sign'd FREDERIC.

Croſſen, Dec. 22. N. S. Two Days ago the Duke of Holſtein and Prince Leopold of Anhalt Deſſau arriv'd here from Berlin, from whence the Train of Artillery came this very Day, and the Forces that are now on the March from thoſe Parts to join the King's Army are, 9 Regiments of Foot, 12 of Grenadiers, 3 of Horſe, and 3 Squadrons of Huſſars.

Mittau in Courland, Dec. 15. N. S. The Great Ducheſs Regent of Ruſſia has ſent an Aſſurance to the States of this Duchy, that ſhe will maintain them in the Enjoyment of their Privileges. An Officer with Fifty Ruſſian Soldiers is come into the Duchy to take Seizen of all the Duke of Courland's Eſtates, by Order, as 'tis ſaid, of the Court of Ruſſia, to make themſelves amends for the immenſe Sums which that Duke ſent into foreign Countries during the Reign of the late Czarina and without her Knowledge. We hear that the two Sons who are ſhut up with him in the Caſtle of Schluſſelbourg are inconſoleable, that their Siſter does nothing but cry all day long, and that the Deſolation of that unfortunate Family is inexpreſſible.

Extract of a Letter of Dec. 5. from Madrid.

The Council of Caſtille being deſired to declare their Opinion as to the Will of the Emperor Charles V. in which there are ſeveral Clauſes that favour the Pretenſions of this Crown to ſome of the Italian Dominions, their Opinion is expreſs, 'That his Majeſty is juſtifiable 'in recovering them, tho' it be by Force of Arms.' The King has order'd the Bonds given to the Elector of Bavaria for the Payment of the Subſidies due to the late Elector his Father, to be converted into Bills upon the Royal Treaſury. Theſe Arrears amount to one Million and 200000 Pieces of Eight.

Manheim, Dec. 27. N. S. There is juſt publiſh'd here a Memorial to prove, that the Princeſſes of Sultzbach, Grandaughters of the preſent Elector Palatine, are authoriſed by virtue of their Rights to ſucceed to the Poſſeſſion of the Duchies of Juliers and Berg after his Death. 'Tis therein aſſerted, that thoſe Princeſſes are compriz'd in the Treaty concluded in 1666, and that the Term, Deſcendants, therein employ'd, is applicable as well to the Female as the Male Heirs. It ſeems to be the View of this Piece to eſtabliſh the Right of the Palatine Princeſſes in ſuch Manner that the eldeſt, who is to be marry'd to the Prince of Sultzbach, may ſucceed him in the Poſſeſſion of Berg and Juliers.

LONDON, January 2.

Letters of the 9th ult, O. S. from Stockholm ſay, that the Day before the Lieutenant-General Count Charles de Lewenhaupt was choſen Marſhal, or Speaker, of the General Dyet of the States of the Kingdom; and that on the 11th the Dyet was to be open'd with a Sermon.

Thoſe of the 22d from Bruſſels ſay, they hear from the Frontiers, that the French are beating the Drum every-where for Recruits; but that the bad Weather and the Froſt had oblig'd thoſe who were at work upon ſome of the Fortreſſes to ſtop their Hands.

A Letter of the 17th from Boiſleduc ſays, the Miſery to which all the adjacent Country is reduc'd, by the Breach of a Dyke Half a League from that Town, is inexpreſſible, all the Country being under Water; even to the very Roofs of moſt of the Houſes, and Abundance of People and Cattle thereby drown'd.

There were 104 Patients in the Hoſpital for Sick People, and the poor Lunaticks in their Madhouſe, that had like to have been drown'd, if they had not been remov'd. In ſhort, by all Accounts of the Inundations by the Breach of the Dykes in Holland, &c. they exceed thoſe in 1651, and are within Half a Foot as high as they were in 1656.

Thoſe of the 6th ditto from Vienna ſay, that Mr. Robinſon the Britiſh Miniſter has frequent Conferences with the Great Duke of Tuſcany and the Sardinian Miniſter, and that there's great Talk of a Treaty between his Britannick Majeſty and the Great Duke.

'Tis added, that the Queen's Decree will ſhortly be iſſued, authorizing the Great Duke her Husband to give his Suffrage in the next Dyet at Francfort for the Kingdom and Electorate of Bohemia; tho' the King of Poland pretends that 'tis the Right of his Son the Prince Royal to repreſent that Electorate, as the neareſt Deſcendant of the Male Branch of the Houſe of Auſtria.

By Letters of the 2d O. S. from Petersburg we are inform'd, that the Duke of Courland has upon Examination already own'd himſelf guilty of ſeveral of the Articles laid to his Charge.

According to the Bill of Mortality at Amſterdam, there dy'd laſt Year 10056, which is 2549 more than the Bill of the Year preceding; and the Number of Ships that have enter'd the Texel during the laſt Year is 1645.

According to Letters of the 10th from Rome, the Pope has eſtabliſh'd Three new Academies or Societies of Perſons of Learning, with Prizes for ſuch of the Members as perform beſt: One is to take Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtory for its Subject, another Prophane Hiſtory, and the third is to treat of the Canons, Councils, and Popes Decretals.

Some Letters from Berlin, of the 14th ult. O. S. intimate, that as the Brandenbourg Family has divers Pretenſions to Courland, there is reaſon to believe they will be ſettled by the Election of a Prince of that Family to the Ducal Dignity. The deceaſed Duke Charles Leopold of Mecklembourg was marry'd to his firſt Wife the Princeſs Sophia Hedwiga of Naſſaw-Dietz, on May 27, 1690; and on April 19, 1716. to his ſecond Wife Catherine Iwanowna, Daughter of the Czar John II. by whom he had the Princeſs Anne, now Regent of Ruſſia.

We hear, that the Prohibition, ſo far as it regards Spaniſh Wool, will ſoon be taken off, and that Commodity allow'd to be imported upon the ſame Foot as in the late War.

Yeſterday the Forty Blue-coat Boys belonging to Chriſt's Hoſpital, educated by Mr. James Hodgſon, Maſter of the Royal Mathematical Foundation, were preſented to his Majeſty according to Annual Cuſtom, by the Preſident and Governors of the ſaid Hoſpital.

The ſame Day the following Numbers were drawn Prizes in the Bridge-Lottery; viz. No. 10275, 37018, 23318, 46562, each 100l. No. 15215, 32853, 48547, 25159, 17507, 174, 41074, 54551, 11116, 50205, 50833, 52017, 23431, each 50 l.

Yeſterday being New-Year's Day there was a ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to pay their Compliments to his Majeſty, the Duke, and the Princeſſes on that Occaſion.

The Ode for the Day compoſed by Colley Cibber, Eſq. Poet Laureat, and ſet to Muſick by Dr. Green, Maſter of his Majeſty's Band of Muſick, was perform'd in the Great Council-Chamber before his Majeſty, the Duke, and the Princeſſes, and divers other Perſons of Diſtinction; the Vocal Parts by the Rev. Mr. Abbot, Mr. Gates, and one of the King's Singing Boys, and the Inſtrumental Parts by his Majeſty's Band of Muſick.

ODE.

Recitative.

PRepare! The Circle forms, prepare!
The Royal Preſence wakes the Year;
Diffuſing Joys around.
A People ſo ſecurely bleſt,
Shall give the Patriot Fame confeſs'd,
To Future Reigns renown'd.

Air.

The Swelling Voice, the Trump, the Drum ſhall grace,
And Britiſh Boys with Bombs intone the Baſs.

Recitative.

Recitative.

While Britain, jealous of her Fame,
Attends Bellona's Car,
Rous'd to their great Forefathers Flame,
Her Sons enjoy the War.

Air.

The Martial Ardour swells the Soul,
Now what her Vengeance can controul?
The Winds averse, their Patience prove;
Wait there the wafting Will of Jove.
Jove when in Vengeance wisely slow,
May strike from thence the surer Blow.

Recitative.

Extent of Realms let Kings inglorious boast,
Britain enjoys the Fruit of every Coast.
Or, if Dominion's measur'd by Command,
Britons might vaunt, as Seas exceed the Land.

Air.

Richer Mines, and Veins of Gold,
May to warmer Climes belong;
Commerce makes the Britons bold,
Industry and Freedom, strong.
These are Mines no Time can wear,
Blessings of our native Growth,
Not enjoy'd by Pride and Sloth;
These are Swords, and Nerves of War.

Recitative.

When Foes, by violated Leagues,
Have prov'd their Envy of her glorious State,
Britain, like Atlas, on her Base,
Has stood the loudest Storms of Fate.

Chorus.

Hoist! hoist then the swelling Sail,
The hostile Seas explore,
And Britain's Cannons roar;
Blow as of old their Barks to Flames,
Tow their tow'ring Pride to Thames.

A Windmill belonging to the Manor-Land, lately erected in the Parish of Stoke Damerall in the County of Devon, about a Mile from the Borough of Plymouth, containing a Pair of French Stones, a Pair of Peak Stones, and a Bunting-Mill; also Granaries for several hundred Quarters of Corn; and Ground, with Stable for Horses. It stands near a Branch of the River Tamer, which is navigable for the largest Men of War several Miles up the Country above the Mill, and falls into the Sea (Plymouth Sound) about a Mile below it. Ships of considerable Burthen may come within 150 Yards of the Field where the Mill stands; betwixt which Field and the River may be made a convenient Communication. Besides a Royal Dock-yard, there is a Town in the said Manor to which the Mill belongs, containing by Estimation above four thousand Inhabitants.

By Mr. OLDYS.

Also his Trial, with some Additions; together with a List of Authors cited by him, and a new and more copious Index to the whole Work.

Sir Walter Raleigh's History of the World is a Work of so vast a Compass, such endless Variety, that no Genius, but one adventurous as his own, durst have undertaken that great Design. I do not apprehend any great Difficulty in collecting and common-placing an Universal History from the whole Body of Historians; that is nothing but mechanic Labour. But to digest the several Authors in his Mind, to take in all their Majesty, Strength, and Beauty, to raise the Spirit of meaner Historians, and to equal all the Excellencies of the best, is Sir Walter's peculiar Praise. His Style is the most perfect, the happiest, and most beautiful of the Age he wrote in, majestic, clear and manly; and he appears every-where so superior, rather than unequal to his Subject, that the Spirit of Rome and Athens seems to be breathed into his Work.

Henry Felton, D. D. in his Dissertation on the Classics, p. 216.

TINCTURA MIRIFICA:

OR,

The Admirable TINCTURE, which infallibly cures the STONE and GRAVEL, whether in the KIDNEYS, URETERS, or BLADDER. and also the Strangury, Stoppage of Urine, and all Heat, Pain and Difficulty in Making Water.

A Few Drops of it momentarily take off the most excruciating Pains in the REINS, BLADDER, and certainly prevent their Return; for it infallibly cures that Distemper in an extraordinary Manner, instantly removes all Uneasiness or Difficulty in making Water, heals all Excoriations, and even Ulcers of the Urinary Passages, relaxes the Ureters, so that small Stones together with Gravel, and all mucous slimy obstructing Matter may pass freely from the Kidnys, to be voided visibly with Urine, without Pain; effectually cleanses the Reins, Ureters, and Bladder from all Impurities, entirely prevents the Stone in those who are troubled with the Gravel only; assuredly dissolves all large Stones, possible to be dissolved; and likewise brings all the Urinary Parts and Passages to their due Tone and Vigour, so as perfectly to free the Patient from all the terrible Symptoms and miserable Effects of that torturing Disease.

It is the safest Medicine in the World, and not disagreeable to take; the very first Dose of it absolutely cures the most dreadful Fit of either Stone or Gravel, in a Minute giving such wonderful Relief and perfect Ease, as is indeed very surprizing; and this great Numbers of Persons of Worth have experienced, to their infinite Satisfaction.

It is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attending Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relics on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breaking out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are fully overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as usually to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have found their great Joy experienc'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble Anti-Syphilicon is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, will perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Stomach.

LONDON: Printed for T. Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-noster Row.
